Launch cycle for new gTLDs

Make your Wishlist

Since new gTLDs will launch over a period of time, start with making a Wishlist for your TLDs of interest. We will then keep track and inform you when they're about to launch.

Sunrise

The Sunrise Period is the first phase of all new gTLDs, where trademark holders can register domain names for their Brands on submitting their Trademark claims.

Landrush

Landrush is a limited phase that follows Sunrise. Usually open to everyone, it is the right time to register very important names, which are not or cannot be trademarked.

General Availability

Last phase in the cycle of a new gTLD - it is the infinite phase where anyone can purchase names on a first-come-first-served basis.

3 Reasons To Register Your Domain Name

1. Build Your Brand
2. Protect Your Trademarks
3. Better Search Engine Optimization

The internet just got bigger with over 700 new generic Top Level domain names to choose from, the time is right to get your own domain name.
